In Northampton, we have expanded and restructured our Housing Advice and Options Service in order to increase our effectiveness in preventing homelessness, improving people's housing conditions and reducing rough sleeping.

We are now looking to appoint Home Visiting Officer who will prevent homelessness by providing an innovative, responsive, solution-focused home visiting service. Interviewing housing applicants and their parents, relatives or friends to establish the reasons for the breakdown of their relationship and explore ways in which homelessness can be prevented through negotiation, problem-solving and/or professional mediation.
