Key responsibilities:

- To construct and research complex advice and write reports to members and officers which balance legislative requirements and business needs.
- To complete Community Governance Reviews in line with legislation. To complete consultation, draft responses to proposals and draft terms of reference.
- To act as the statutory Scrutiny Officer and advise and lead Scrutiny Panels in carrying out an effective Scrutiny function.
- To have excellent knowledge of all Council departments to ensure that advice is given taking into account service aims and to identify issues which Scrutiny may want to consider in their work plan.
- To present to a wide range of audiences including Panels, Working Groups and Committees on complex matters which may involve interpreting legislative requirements and providing practical solutions as to how it will work in practice. To respond to challenges within presentations and provide advice.

- To coordinate the agenda and minutes and provide professional procedural advice to the Council, Committees and a variety of working groups and advisory bodies.
- To ensure the provision of administrative support and advice to the Council, Cabinet, Scrutiny Panels, Committees and other decision-making, deliberative or advisory bodies as may be required.
- To be responsible for the day-to-day management of the Governance Officers.
- To ensure that the Councils website and online tools in relation to the democratic function are kept up to date and are in accordance with legislative requirements.
- To be responsible for support to new members, including all necessary information and the provision of new member information to support their role as a member of the Council
- To manage delegated budgets and ensure effective financial planning and monitoring in accordance with the Council's Financial Procedure rules.
- To work towards achievement of the Member Development Charter
- To receive and deal with petitions made in accordance with the Council's petitions scheme
- To manage the Council's independent remuneration panel for recommending members' allowances
- Under the Local Government and Housing Act 1989, this post is classified as a politically restricted post. Employees who are politically restricted are disqualified from standing for or holding elected office under the Local Government (Political Restrictions) Regulations 1990 (LGO(PR)R 1990) [SI 851].
